

Spafford F.D. Auxiliary makes plans for pancake breakfasts, other events for 2008

SPAFFORD – The Spafford Fire Department Auxiliary will begin holding their Saturday morning pancake breakfasts again starting March 1 through April 26 from 8 to 11 a.m. The breakfast menu will offer pancakes, French toast, sausage, ham, eggs, home fries, toast, coffee and juice. Proceeds will benefit the Spafford Food Pantry.

The Alan Feinstein Foundation is donating one million dollars to non-profit organizations throughout the United States again this year. Any donations received by the Spafford Food Pantry will be matched by the Feinstein Foundation. Food or monetary donations are greatly appreciated. Checks may be sent to Spafford Food Pantry, 660 Route 41, Homer, NY 13077.

The Spafford Food Pantry is held on the third Friday of each month for families in the Spafford, Borodino and Scott area. The next date is scheduled for March 20 at the Spafford Firehouse on Route 41 in Spafford. If emergency food is needed, call Rose Clark at 749-2753 to make arrangements.

At the March 5 meeting of the Spafford Fire Department Auxiliary, members will be discussing plans for the annual installation of officers banquet to be held in May, as well as planning events to be held throughout the spring and summer months. Election of officers will be held at the April 2 meeting.

The trust fund sponsored by the auxiliary for the three children of Tanya Wright is continuing to accept donations. Send checks payable to Tanya Wright's Children Trust Fund c/o Rose Clark, 743 Route 41, Homer, NY 13077. Tanya was a devoted and longtime member of the auxiliary who was tragically killed in automobile accident.
